

Group Meeting 17
for Lessons 47-49
Listening to Wisdom

Looking back (this past week):

- ☞ Ask, “What are your main “takeaways” from the lessons this past week?”
- ☞ Go over the completed Quiz or give it as an open-book test
- ☞ Once again, ask everyone to tell about some “wisdom marbles” they picked up this last week. (Treasure Hunt, page 183).
- ☞ Has anyone started a “15-minutes-a-day” skill or project? (15-Minutes, page 184).
- ☞ A source of wisdom often comes from someone we don’t respect. Lead the group through the activity found on page 189. Ask several people to tell about someone they thought of – a person they don’t admire, but they can still learn something from them.
- ☞ Ask if anyone has comments about the activity found on page 192 entitled Fruit of Listening to Wisdom.
- ☞ Ask if anyone has thoughts to share about the Self-Evaluation (Progress with the Three Activities) on page 197.

Looking forward (this coming week):

- ☞ In preparation for the next Group Meeting, divide the class into four groups. Give each group one of the following stories.
 - * I Samuel 13:5-14
 - * Joshua 7
 - * Gen. 4:1-9
 - * II Kings 5:15-16 & 19-27
- Have each group read their assigned story aloud (to themselves) and identify the character who is making a life-changing decision.
- Each group is to imagine what advice (good & bad) they may have been given before making their decision.
- Each group will report their conclusions back to the class.
- ☞ Make copies of the chart on the next page, Proverbs “Chapter of the Day.” Give one to each person in the class.
 - Encourage everyone to fill this out every day this next week and bring it back to class.
